

BRENDA MCNEILL

*Art of Leisure*SM

As someone who moved from the Bay Area to Sonoma Valley almost 30 years ago, I have curated a few “favorite places” around Sonoma. Having lived in both the hills and in town, these locally owned “spots” capture the Sonoma Lifestyle experience beautifully.

slow Sunday spots

Wine tasting close to the Sonoma Plaza:

- Three Sticks Wines www.threestickswines.com
- Pangloss Cellars www.panglosscellars.com

Antique Shops & Thrift Shops:

- Chateau Sonoma www.chateausonoma.com
- Sonoma Country Antiques www.sonomacountryantiques.com
- Plain Jane’s Consignment www.plainjanesconsignments.com
- Church Mouse Thrift Shops www.stfchurchmouse.com

Bike:

- Wine Country Cyclery www.winecountrycyclery.com
- Blazing Saddles Bicycle Rentals www.blazingsaddles.com
- Sonoma Valley Bike tours www.sonomavalleybiketours.com
- Sonoma Adventures www.sonoma-adventures.com

Walk & Hike:

- Sonoma Bike Path www.sonoma.com
- Vallejo Home & Field of Dreams www.parks.ca.gov
- Jack London State Park www.jacklondonpark.com

Lunch:

- Della Santina’s www.dellasantinas.com
- The Girl & The Fig www.thegirlandthefig.com
- El Molino Central www.elmolino.com

Nursery:

- Sonoma Mission Gardens www.sonomamissiongardens.com

Spa:

- MacArthur Place Inn & Spa www.macarthurplace.com

Local Authentic Sonoma